To Remember Our Deceased Classmates

Program

The background of the program is a large, light gray watermark of the USMA eagle logo. The eagle is spread-winged and perched atop a shield. The shield contains the letters 'USMA' in a stylized, blocky font. The eagle's talons are visible, holding what appear to be a sword and a scroll.

THE CADET PRAYER

O God, our Father, Thou Searcher of Men's hearts, help us to draw near to Thee in sincerity and truth.

May our religion be filled with gladness
and may our worship of Thee be natural.

Strengthen and increase our admiration
for honest dealing and clean thinking, and suffer not our hatred of hypocrisy and pretence ever to diminish.

Encourage us in our endeavor to live above the common level of life.

Make us to choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong,
and never to be content with a half truth when the whole can be won.

Endow us with courage that is born of loyalty
to all that is noble and worthy,

that scorns to compromise with vice and injustice
and knows no fear when truth and right are in jeopardy.

Guard us against flippancy and irreverence in the sacred things of life.

Grant us new ties of friendship and new opportunities of service.

Kindle our hearts in fellowship with those of a cheerful countenance, and soften our hearts with sympathy for those who sorrow and suffer.

Help us to maintain the honor of the Corps untarnished and unsullied and to show forth in our lives the ideals of West Point in doing our duty to Thee and to our Country.

All of which we ask in the name of the Great Friend and Master of men.

AMEN

THE CORPS

The Corps, The Corps, The Corps!

The Corps! Bareheaded salute it,

With eyes up, thanking our God

That we of the Corps are treading

Where they of the Corps have trod

They are here in ghostly assemblage,

The men of the Corps long dead,

And our hearts are standing attention

While we wait for their passing tread.

We, sons of today, we salute you

You, sons of an earlier day;

We follow, close order, behind you,

Where you have pointed the way;

The long gray line of us stretches

Through the years of a century told,

And the last man feels to his marrow

The grip of your far-off hold.

Grip hands with us now, though we see not,

Grip hands with us, strengthen our hearts

As the long line stiffens and straightens

With the thrill that your presence imparts.

Grip hands - though it be from the shadows

While we swear as you did of yore,

Or living, or dying, to honor

The Corps, and the Corps, and the Corps!

THE LATE BISHOP H. S. SHIPMAN
FORMER CHAPLAIN, U.S.M.A.

ALMA MATER

Hail, Alma Mater dear,

To us be ever near,

Help us thy motto bear

Through all the years.

Let DUTY be well performed,

HONOR be e'er untamed,

COUNTRY be ever armed,

West Point, by thee.

Guide us, thy sons, aright,

Teach us by day, by night,

To keep thine honor bright

For thee to fight.

When we depart from thee,

Serving on land or sea,

May we still loyal be,

West Point, to thee.

And when our work is done,

Our course on earth is run,

May it be said, "Well Done;

Be thou at peace."

E'er may that line of gray

Increase from day to day,

Live, serve, and die, we pray,

West Point, for thee.
