

Frank Boyle Eyler Co I-1

The Garden State lost one of its more talented comedians when Frank entered West Point. Never one to pass up an opportunity for exercising his original humor, Frank kept us laughing on those bleak days of academics. This devoted hi-fi enthusiast, conscientious work, loyal friend, and victor against the P.E. Department now secures his well-earned niche in the class of '61.

Born – 22 July 1937, Puerto Rico.

To USMA – Came from Patterson, NJ. Appointed by Texas 6th.

Died – 18 Dec 2006 (age 69) at Wayne, NJ. Buried at West Point.

Military Awards – National Defense Service Medal.

Schooling – Medical School Student.

Family - Wife – Ann Eyler, passed away on 8 Dec 1996 – 2 children (Erich and Elizabeth) – 4 grandchildren

Contact – Erich Eyler (son), Elizabeth Eyler Verrips (daughter).

Frank served on active duty in the Army (Artillery) for 3 plus years, resigning in 1964, with the rank of 1st Lieutenant. His first assignment was with the 562nd Artillery. He then served with the 52nd Artillery Brigade.

After leaving active duty with the Army, he worked as a Project Engineer with Simmonds Precision, Project Engineer with the Eaton Corporation (Aircraft Controls Division), Engineer Specialist with the Curtiss Wright Corporation and a Senior Mechanical Engineer with B.F. Goodrich Aerospace in Cedar Knolls, NJ. Frank passed away on 18 December 2006, from cancer.