

Clayton Imes Grant, Jr. Co K-2

One who is not necessarily satisfied with a placid life, Imes has presented the T.D. with some unique problems. A fine example of this is the time he organized a mountain climbing expedition on spring leave. However, through it all, Imes has demonstrated a steadfast adherence to his convictions, a trait which should serve him well in the future.

Born – 14 Feb 1938, Texas

To USMA – Came from Dallas, TX, Appointed as a Qualified Alternate. Nickname – “Imes.”

Died – 15 Dec 1972 (age 34) at Waxahachie, TX. Buried Laurel Land Memorial Park, Dallas, TX.

Military Awards – National Defense Service Medal.

Schooling – Unknown.

Family – Unknown.

Contact – Unknown.

Imes served on active duty in the Army (Signal Corps) for 3 plus years, resigning in 1964, with the rank of 1st Lieutenant. His first assignment was with the 142nd Signal Battalion. Imes passed away on 15 December 1972.

Footnote from Imes’s wife – “Imes had a saying or maybe a motto that I heard him refer to on numerous occasions ‘When I am gone,’ he would say, ‘I hope people will say of me - He left things better than he found them.’”