

Grant Bruce Dagleish Co A-1

Bruce, who entered and left West Point engaged, is a success in all fields of endeavor. He likes life and everything that is a part of it. His friendly personality attracts people to him and gains him their respect and confidence. His days are filled with duties of a regimental commander, coffee breaks, bull sessions, and sports activities. But the weekends.....?

Born – 17 Mar 1937, Arizona.

To USMA – from San Diego, CA.

Died – 4 July 2015 (age 78) at Prescott Valley, AR.
Burial site unknown.

Military Awards – unknown.

Schooling – Command & General Staff College, National War College.

Family - Wife – Sandra Dagleish (third wife) – 2 children (Gregory and Nannette).

Contact – Sandra Dagleish, Address 4474 North Phillip Drive, Prescott Valley, AZ 86314, Phone unknown, Email unknown.

Bruce served on active duty in the Army (Infantry) for 26 years, retiring in 1985, with the rank of Colonel. His first assignment was with the 2nd Brigade of the 21st Infantry. He then served with the 5th Infantry, A&MS, Vietnam (first tour, Headquarters, 173rd Airborne Brigade, Aide-de-Camp, Commanding General), Ft. Leavenworth, KS (Command and General Staff College), Vietnam (second tour, Headquarters, MACV), Ft. Dix, NJ (2nd Readiness Region, RR2), Ft. McNair, DC (National War College).

Bruce passed away on 4 July 2015.

Footnote from Bruce – “If you want something to look forward to in the future, let me share a piece of advice from my Jewish mother – “Old age is not for wimps.”

John Oliver, Jim Connors, Pete Heimdahl, Bruce Dagleish, Frank Habic, Mark Popovich