Jim served on active duty in the Army (Artillery) for 15 years, resigning in 1976, with the rank of Major. His first assignment was with the 1/22 Artillery. He then served Fort Sill, OK (Battery Commander, Artillery Training Center, BC ArTC), Fort Sill, OK (Special Weapons School, SWS), Vietnam (5th Special Forces Group, 5 SFG), Fort Sill, OK (Artillery & Missile School, A&MS), Vietnam (Headquarters, 101st Airborne Division), Germany (2/75 Artillery and V Corps Artillery), Fayetteville, AR (University of Arkansas), Fort Sill, OK (Staff & Faculty, Field Artillery School, S&F FAS), Pentagon (Director of Personnel and Community Activities, DPCA)

After serving on active duty with the Army, Jim had a successful career in business as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). He joined the CPA firm of Ashby, Armstrong, Johnson in Denver. He then established and was a partner with his own CPA firm of Ashby, Goldstine & Jackson. Jim passed away on 18 May 2019.

Footnote from Jim – “Sharing experiences with grandsons and nephews who are now in the service has been great. It has helped them to mature and progress, to be safe, and to teach their peers and subordinates how to survive in war.”
